We participated in the September 2016 Bavarian Castles Tour with the Venice extension and it was amazing. From our arrival and pick-up in the Munich airport to our transportation from Venice, Astrid and her team did an incredible job with the logistics of transporting us from wondrous destination to amazing destination.

Our tour guide for Bavaria was Barbara and she was nothing short of awesome. Very knowledgeable of the history of each castle and the surrounding countryside to the local eateries and customs, we were never left feeling lost about where we were or what to do with available free time. Barbara made sure each of us in the tour group felt welcome and comfortable, she made the trip worthwhile.

The Landhaus in Bavaria was spacious and felt like home. The breakfast spread was exquisite, there was a bit of everything and plentiful. Believe me, you'll need the fuel for each of the day trips! The owner was a pleasure to speak with and she went out of her way to ensure that we had everything we needed during our stay. If you ever have a chance to stay here outside of a tour, I highly recommend staying here.

For Venice, we had Federico as our tour guide and he was incredible. We had three days in Venice and on one of those days, the water transportation was on strike but Federico was on his game and made sure we all knew what boats to take and when so we could continue the tour. He was very knowledgeable of the area and had lots of stories to tell us about the history of Venice. He made the extension tour memorable for each of us.

If you've been leery of booking a tour group, don't be, at least not with Astrid and her team! They're responsive, caring and truly want you to enjoy the country they call home. We'll definitely be back for another tour!
