

Dear Castle Buffs,

During the summer of 2007 we took both the German River tour and the Bavarian tour offered by Castles of the World with Astrid Baur as our tour organizer and guide.

We thoroughly enjoyed both tours, which were quite different. The River tour included many fortified medieval castles and we stayed in a variety of interesting hotels. The Bavarian tour focused on the palaces of King Ludwig II and his contemporaries, and we stayed at the same delightful inn for the duration of the tour.

We found these tours to be very well organized with a good mix of free time and planned activities. Astrid is a wonderful guide – very knowledgeable and personable, and she certainly picked wonderful restaurants.

We would highly recommend these tours to you. If you have specific questions you may e-mail us at lpflocke@comcast.net noting “Castle Tours” as your subject.

Sincerely,

Pat and Lee Flocke
