

Berlin and the East of Germany

Monarchs, Poets and Reformers (Private Tour)

For more than three centuries the rulers of Brandenburg commissioned the best artists of their time to enhance the Royal residences in and around Berlin with elaborate palaces and gardens. There was building activity under a long series of Prussian monarchs – from Joachim II to the Great Elector, and from Frederick the Great to the last of the German emperors, William II. Visit the resulting works of architecture and landscape gardening, which are overwhelming.

Also visit the stunningly beautiful cities of Leipzig and Dresden in Saxony with their rich cultural heritage, follow Martin Luther's footsteps in Wittenberg, Wartburg and Erfurt, visit Weimar, the town of poets and thinkers and enjoy its rich history from Luther to the iron curtain – and its opening!

Day 3 – BERLIN SIGHTSEEING, CHARLOTTENBURG PALACE

Start your day with an orientation tour of the capital of Germany.

Guided sightseeing in the once-divided metropolis features the elegant Ku'damm, the restored Reichstag, the 210-foot Victory Column in the Tiergarten Park, the Holocaust Memorial, and Kaiser Wilhelm Memorial Church with its bomb-damaged tower.

Drive past the State Opera House and Checkpoint Charlie, and continue on foot in the old part of the city to Brandenburg Gate – the heart of old Prussia with many historical buildings.

After free time for lunch spend the afternoon at CHARLOTTENBURG PALACE, the largest residence of the Hohenzollern in Berlin. Originally built by Elector Frederick III as a summer residence for his wife, Sophie Charlotte, the palace was later extended into a stately building with a cours d'honneur.

The magnificent palace is surrounded by a baroque garden, in which diverse architectures melt into a unique ensemble. The entire palace presents itself with majestically equipped rooms and saloons and with top-class art collections that offer outstanding masterpieces.

One of the highlights in the exhibition is the largest collection of French paintings of the 18th century outside of France. The ensemble of rooms and salons – artistically as well as historically impressive – is a living testimonial of courtly culture and life from baroque times until the early 20th century.

After dinner you have tickets for a revue show at Friedrichstadt Palast !

> Buffet breakfast, door-to-door transportation, guided city tour, inside tour Charlottenburg Palace, dinner, tickets Friedrichstadt Palast, hotel in Berlin

Day 4 – POTSDAM AND ITS PRUSSIAN MONARCHS

Today we focus on POTSDAM, the capital of Brandenburg. This city, just outside Berlin, offers many unique cultural landmarks. First visit SANS SOUCI. No other palace is more closely connected with the personality of Frederick the Great. The name Sans Souci - "without care" - should be understood as the aspiration and leitmotif of the king, because it is here that he most preferred to withdraw from the world with his dogs. His summer residence was both a favourite place and an important sanctuary for him in difficult times.

King Frederick desired to be buried in a grave on the highest vineyard terrace, and his wish was finally fulfilled in 1991. The location of the palace on the celebrated vineyard terraces and the originally preserved, 18th century interior decorations permit today's visitors to become immersed in the world of the philosophers.

Later today we visit CECILIENHOF, the palace of the Potsdam Conference in 1945. Emperor William II had Cecilienhof Palace built between 1913 and 1917 in the north of Potsdam's New Garden for his eldest son, Crown Prince William, and his wife, Crown Princess Cecilie.

The palace's appearance was attuned to its scenic surroundings through the use of traditional materials like brick and wood. In order to disguise the actual size of the palace, with its 176 rooms, individual building elements were cleverly grouped around several courtyards.

We return to Berlin for dinner this evening.

> Buffet breakfast, door-to-door transportation, tours of Sanssouci and Cecilienhof, service of local guide, dinner, hotel in Berlin

Day 5 – LUTHERSTADT WITTENBERG, LEIPZIG, ERFURT

Today first we visit LUTHERSTADT WITTENBERG, the home town of Dr. Martin Luther, the Great Reformer, and the city affectionately known as the “Cradle of the Reformation”. See the Luther House, the Castle Church where Luther posted his 95 critical theses in 1517, provoking the Protestant Reformation, and the Town Church where he often preached.

On to LEIPZIG where the city's colourful past and lively present can be glimpsed everywhere. Take a stroll through the city centre – there's plenty to explore! Visit the market place with the Old Town Hall, St. Thomas Church where Bach was cantor, St. Nicholas Church, and the Mädler Passage with its legendary restaurant, Auerbachs Keller. Each place will help you discover more about the diverse traditions, personalities and history of Leipzig.

Late afternoon arrival ERFURT, the capital of Thuringia. Go for a stroll in the old town followed by dinner in a local brewery.

> Buffet breakfast, door-to-door transportation, tours of Wittenberg and Leipzig, service of local guide, dinner, hotel in Erfurt

Day 6 – WARTBURG CASTLE, WEIMAR

A beautiful drive this morning to the WARTBURG CASTLE overlooking Eisenach in the Thuringia Forest, constructed between 1155 and 1180. It is one of the best preserved secular buildings of the late Romanesque period north of the Alps, and it is surely one of the most beautiful.

It was here that Luther translated the Bible. Goethe praised the beautiful natural surroundings of the Wartburg, and Ludwig II King of Bavaria used it as a model for Neuschwanstein. Enjoy your guided tour of this wonderful castle!

Our next stop today is WEIMAR, home of the famous German writers Johann Wolfgang von Goethe and Friedrich Schiller, and honoured as the "Classical Weimar" UNESCO World Heritage Site

"Here, you feel as grand and free as the wondrous nature before your eyes." Goethe's words still ring true today, and are a perfect description of what awaits visitors in and around Weimar.

Go for stroll with a local guide, and visit the National Goethe Museum, the most important monument to the classical period.

Return to Erfurt where you have free time for dinner tonight.

> Buffet breakfast, door-to-door transportation, entrance fee Wartburg, tour in Weimar, service of local guide, hotel in Erfurt

Day 7 – DRESDEN

Leave the state of Thuringia and drive back into Saxony to DRESDEN, one of Germany's most beautiful cities and a jewel of history. Dresden today ranks as a world-class city of art and culture.

Set in a magnificent landscape in the Elbe valley it went through a blossoming of architectural and artistic brilliance that earned it the name "The Jewel Box". On our orientation tour we see the Royal Palace, Zwinger Palace, the Semper Opera House, Elbe castles, Villa Quarter, Hellerau garden city, award-winning modern buildings, and the "Blue Wonder" bridge east of the city centre. Inside visit at FRAUENKIRCHE (The Church of Our Lady), one of Germany's most amazing post-WW2 reconstructions.

It seems as though Augustus the Strong and his successors were not prepared to wait for nature to finish the job; with their skill, artistry and determination, they filled the Grüne Gewölbe (Green Vault) and Türkische Cammer (Turkish Chamber) with treasures from all over the world, collected paintings and porcelain, and were patrons of the great composers. Inside visit at the GREEN VAULT.

Later enjoy a dinner overlooking the Elbe.

> Buffet breakfast, door-to-door transportation, Tour Dresden, entrance fee, dinner, hotel in Dresden

Day 8 – ELBE CRUISE, CASTLE PILLNITZ, BERLIN

Today a special treat – board a boat and cruise on the Elbe River to CASTLE PILLNITZ and its wonderful gardens acquired by Elector Augustus the Strong for his favorite lady Anna Constantia von Cosel, who immediately began its Baroque conversion.

When Saxony's best-known mistress fell out of favor, the Elector himself had the hillside and waterside palaces erected. The grand castle and park grounds directly situated on the banks of the Elbe river are considered a perfect example of the chinoise style that has the architecture of the Far East amalgamate with the Baroque style. The English, Dutch and Chinese gardens on the extensive garden grounds will urge you to take a stroll and visit the famous 250-year-old Japanese camellia.

Return to Berlin for mid afternoon arrival. Get your final shopping done and join your tour director and traveling companions for a fabulous farewell dinner.

> Buffet breakfast, door-to-door transportation, River Cruise, inside visit Pillnitz Castle, dinner, hotel in Berlin

Day 9 - HOME FROM BERLIN
