

Taking Astrid's French Castles tour was a dream come true for me! If you'd love to see Paris and Loire Valley, this is the tour for you! Of the many organized tours I've taken, this was among the best!

The chateaux in Loire Valley were magnificent and the pace of the tour was just right. Very little driving, centralized lodging in a fabulous location, and plenty of free time.

Astrid is very personable and everyone loves her. Astrid's travel groups are small and intimate, allowing each traveler to feel like they're getting personal attention. Astrid's style and level of service outshines any of the large tour companies out there! And she doesn't charge optional excursion fees thereby increasing the cost of your tour!

I've taken two of Astrid's European Castles tours and can't wait to take another!
