When the group is complete we drive directly to the Rhine for lunch in Rudesheim.

Afterwards board a Rhinesteamer and cruise on the most beautiful stretch of the river, the part added to the UNESCO World Heritage Sites list in 2002. Relax as we go downstream past the Loreley Rock and lots of medieval castles on both sides of the river, and on to most charming Boppard – our home for the next two nights.

Tonight we meet for a welcome drink followed by dinner at the hotel.

We continue to medieval ROTHENBURG OB DER TAUBER in Frankonia where you feel like you just jumped back into the 16th century. Completely surrounded by its medieval ramparts with countless towers, Rothenburg is famous for its ancient houses, fountains, cobbled lanes, hidden corners, and ornate street signs.
