

Black Forest, Alsace and Switzerland

Three Corners' Castles, Magnificent Scenery & Wine

Explore the "Three Corners" of Europe – where Germany, France and Switzerland meet by the Rhine River.

Tour beautiful and imposing castles in Germany and France, explore charming towns in both countries. Marvel at the unique mix of Germanic and French architecture and culture. Go sightseeing in Strasbourg and Colmar, and follow the Alsatian Wine Route to charmingly picturesque villages.

Then head into the German corner of Switzerland, to stop at the Rhine Falls, explore gorgeous Lucerne, and take in the breathtaking vistas from the top of Mount Pilatus.

Cultural variety, and a delightful blend of castles, magnificent scenery and wine.

Itinerary

Day 1 – DEPARTURE

Board your flight from home to Zurich, Switzerland.
This itinerary assumes this to be an overnight flight.
Air fare independently arranged.

Day 2 – WELCOME TO ZURICH AND ALSACE

Arrival in ZURICH, Switzerland. At 12 noon we depart from the airport and head first into France, to your hotel in Alsace which will be your home for the next three nights.

Alsace was fought over for centuries by France and Germany, and owned by both for extended periods. The culture is a unique but predictable resulting blend.

Today, the region presents only a peaceful aspect, with pastel-painted villages, fortified towns, and sleepy vineyards.

Rest in the afternoon, begin exploring the town, or just take it easy.

Tonight you'll meet your travelling companions and tour director and enjoy a great welcome dinner.

> Your tour includes: Transfer from airport to hotel, three-course dinner with menu choice, including one beverage and coffee or tea after dinner, hotel in Alsace

Day 3 – CASTLE HAUT-KOENIGSBOURG, ALSATIAN WINE ROUTE

Since its construction in the 12th century, the HAUT-KOENIGSBOURG CASTLE at Orschwiller in Alsace has been a constant witness to both European conflicts and rivalry between lords, kings and emperors.

A number of illustrious owners each left their mark on the castle's history, and successive events even led to changes in the castle's structure. Enjoy a tour of this magnificent castle with its majestic architecture and its incredible view across the Alsatian plain.

We continue on the ALSATIAN WINE ROUTE, stopping in villages along the way, each of them offering a delightful picture postcard setting and some the best examples of Alsatian architecture.

> Buffet breakfast, door-to-door transportation, entrance fees, wine tasting, three-course dinner, hotel in Alsace

Day 4 – STRASBOURG AND COLMAR

This morning we visit STRASBOURG, seat of the Council of Europe and the European Parliament. Join your guide for a walking tour of the old town and visit the Cathedral of Notre Dame. The 142-metre (466-foot) spire is a masterpiece of architectural elegance and intricacy. We also visit La Petite France, the most picturesque district of old Strasbourg, with magnificent half-timbered houses that date from the 16th and 17th centuries. Fishermen, millers and tanners once lived and worked in this part of town where the streets have been built level with the waterways.

We continue to COLMAR in the heart of Alsace. Colmar's Germanic and French architectural heritage was spared by the frequent wars that ravaged this area. Highlights include the “Kœlffhus”, Pfister House, and the House of Heads. The town has preserved the charm of its romantic districts (Tanner's District, Little Venice). Enjoy your guided tour of the old town, which also includes a visit to the Bartholdi museum, housed in a vast residence which was the birthplace of the creator of New York's Statue of Liberty. Its rooms contain a collection of Frédéric Auguste Bartholdi's most important works, thanks to the heritage the artist's widow left to the city.

> Buffet breakfast, door-to-door transportation, entrance fees, tours in Strasbourg and Colmar, services of local guides, three-course dinner, hotel in Alsace

Day 5 – FREIBURG, WINE CELLAR TOUR, BREISACH

This morning go for a stroll around the old city of FREIBURG with your guide. Walk the main streets and squares, its small streams (Bächle) and lanes with the colourful mosaics made of Rhine pebbles, the Cathedral Square (Münsterplatz) with its merchant town houses and secular buildings, the colourful farmers and trader market, and get to know the city's very long history. A tour of the Gothic cathedral with its wealth of medieval treasures forms the highlight of the tour.

Visit the winery Badische Winzergenossenschaft, the largest of its kind in Europe, explore their wine cellars, and enjoy some wine tasting.

We continue to BREISACH on the Rhine River for a visit to the town, followed by dinner.

Then we cross the Rhine and head to beautiful LAKE TITISEE in the Black Forest for two nights.

> Buffet breakfast, door-to-door transportation, local guide, three course dinner, hotel at Lake Titisee

Day 6 – HOHENZOLLERN AND LICHTENSTEIN CASTLES

Today we visit two of Germany's most beautiful castles, both rising majestically from atop the Swabian Hills. First we go to HOHENZOLLERN CASTLE for an inside guided tour. King Frederick William IV. of Prussia had it reconstructed and wrote in 1844:

"The memories of the year 1819 are exceedingly dear to me and like a pleasant dream, especially the sunset we watched from the bastions... Now a dream of my youth has become one wish, to see the Hohenzollern hill made habitable once more..."

Indeed the bastions and towers offer a breathtaking panorama over the countryside, and the splendid halls and rooms offer lots of valuable works of art pertaining to the history of Prussia's Kings and Germany's emperors.

We continue to LICHTENSTEIN CASTLE. The first castle was built here in 1200 but it was destroyed twice, in 1311 and in 1381. Afterwards it was abandoned and fell into ruin until 1802, when King Frederick I of Württemberg built a hunting lodge there.

Lichtenstein Castle evolved into its present glorious appearance when it passed to King Frederick's nephew, the Duke Wilhelm of Urach. Its new owner, inspired by Wilhelm Hauff's novel Lichtenstein, ordered its reconstruction and that was carried out between 1840 and 1842 by architect Carl Alexander Heideloff. Today Lichtenstein Castle is still owned by the Dukes of Urach, but it is open to the public. Enjoy breathtaking scenery from the hilltop.

Dinner tonight in the country in the heart of the Black Forest.

> Buffet breakfast, door-to-door transportation, entrance fees, three-course dinner, hotel at Lake Titisee

Day 7 – RHINE FALLS AND LUCERNE, SWITZERLAND

Today it is goodbye to Germany and the Black Forest as we cross the border into Switzerland. We stop in Schaffhausen to see the largest waterfalls in Europe, the RHINE FALLS, where in summer 600,000 liters of water falls down 23 meters (75 feet) every second.

We continue to LUCERNE, this most beautiful city at the foot of the Swiss Alps on fabulous Lake Lucerne. See the Lion Monument (the famous dying Lion of Lucerne), walk the wooden Chapel Bridge and join your guide for a stroll of the old town.

Later shop for something really Swiss – chocolate, watches or army knives – or stroll along the Lake this afternoon.

Enjoy a typical Swiss dinner on your own in town or at the lake.

Tonight we are staying just outside the city, at Merlischachen on beautiful Lake Lucerne.

> Buffet breakfast, door-to-door transportation, visits at Rhine Falls and Lucerne, hotel on Lake Lucerne

Day 8 – LUCERNE, MOUNT PILATUS

This morning be prepared for incredible views as you climb up MOUNT PILATUS by cogwheel train, the steepest in the world. From the top enjoy endless views of the mountains and plains and lakes below. Time for a Swiss hot chocolate before we return downhill on the other side of the mountain by cable car.

Back in LUCERNE you have the afternoon free to spend at your leisure. Maybe go for a cruise on Lake Lucerne, visit the Swiss Museum of Transport or one of the many Art Galleries, go hiking in the stunning surroundings, just enjoy time at the Lake and relax, or get your final shopping done.

Tonight be prepared for lots of fun at a Swiss Folklore Farewell Dinner.

> Buffet breakfast, door-to-door transportation, cogwheel train and cable car rides, three-course dinner with show, hotel on Lake Lucerne

Day 9 – HOME FROM ZURICH

Time to say "Auf wiedersehen". One final breakfast and then a complimentary transfer to Zurich Airport for your return flight home.

If your flight is leaving earlier than 10.30 a.m. we can arrange for an alternative transfer at your expense.

> Buffet breakfast, transfer to Airport
